Petition for Order Nisi

Session date:

11 Iyar 5773 (April 21, 2013)

Representing the Petitioners:

Adv. Nimrod Avigal; Adv. Tal Steiner

Representing the Respondents:

Adv. Hila Gorni; Adv. Moriah Freeman

Judgment

The respondents stated in their response and in their memorandum of points and authorities that Gaza residents who entered the Judea and Samaria Area before September 12, 2005, would not be expelled unless there was a specific security justification to expel them. Hence, the grant of the remedy concerning which an order nisi was issued on May 24, 2012, is no longer needed. Therefore, we suggested that the petitioners would not continue with the petition, following which petitioners' legal counsel informed that he agreed to withdraw the petition, without prejudice, especially with respect to the status in the Area of those who moved from Gaza to the Area and with respect to the permanent residency procedure which was expected to be approved in the near future.

In view of the above, the order nisi is revoked and the petition withdrawn, without prejudice to petitioners' arguments, as specified above. No order for costs is issued.

Given today, 11 Iyar 5773 (April 21, 2013) at the presence of the legal counsels to the parties.
