Re: Notice of intent to seize and demolish the structure where ‘Awwad, ID No. _____ resides.

1. Pursuant to his power as the military commander in the Judea and Samaria Area, and subject to Regulation 119 of the Emergency Regulations (1945), and other powers vested in him under any law and security legislation, the IDF Judea and Samaria Area Commander hereby notifies you of his intent to seize and demolish a two-story structure in the village of Idhna (waypoint 687230/3493320, as marked on the attached map), which belongs to _____ ‘Awwad, ID No. _____ (hereinafter: the above named) and serves as his residence.
2. This measure is pursued as the above named perpetrated a terrorist attack on April, 14, 2014, wherein he fired at a number of vehicles traveling on Road No. 35, near Tarqumya Crossing. The shots fired by the above named resulted in the death of Commander Baruch Mizrahi, RIP, and the injury of additional civilians. It is the position of the GOC Central Command that this measure may deter potential terrorists and promote security in the Area.
3. Should you wish to present arguments or objections against this intent, you must submit these in writing to the IDF Commander in the Area within 48 hours of delivery of this notice, via the Central Command Public Liaison Office, by e-mail at pniot-tsibur@mail.idf.il. The office telephone number: 02-5305104 or 02-5305333).
4. Any factual or legal arguments your raise must be supported by documents and other proof, which must be enclosed in your letter to the military commander.

On behalf of IDF Commander in the Judea and Samaria Area.

Enclosed: a map marking the house
