Dear Ms.,

Re: Your letter on the “grant of permission to the Armon HaNatziv attack victim’s parents to watch the process of sealing of the attacker’s family home in Jabal Mukabber”

Your letter to the Attorney General of 23.3.17

I wish to thank you for your above-referenced letter, and update you that following a dialogue between the Deputy Attorney General (administrative-constitutional law), Mr. Raz Nizri, and the Israel Police legal advisor, Mr. Shaul Gordon, on the above-referenced issue it has been decided that from now on such applications for presence during the implementation of sealing orders, as described in your letter, will no longer be approved.

Sincerely

Nadim Aboud, Adv.
Assistant Deputy Attorney General
