

Disclaimer: The following is a non-binding translation of the original Hebrew document. It is provided by HaMoked: Center for the Defence of the Individual for information purposes only. The original Hebrew prevails in any case of discrepancy. While every effort has been made to ensure its accuracy, HaMoked is not liable for the proper and complete translation nor does it accept any liability for the use of, reliance on, or for any errors or misunderstandings that may derive from the English translation. For queries about the translation please contact site@hamoked.org.il

State of Israel

Ministry of Justice
State Attorney's Office
Date: 23 June 1994
Our no.: 2797/93

To:
Adv. Eliyahu Avram
The Association for Civil Rights in Israel
P.O.B. 8273
Jerusalem

Re.: HCJ 2797/93 Gharbit v. Minister of Interior

Your letters dated 24.4.94, 29.3.94, 13.2.94

In response to your above-referenced letters, I hereby inform you that according to the Minister of Interior' decision of March of this year, the sex of the family-unification applicant will not be pertinent henceforth.

Any application to be filed for family unification between spouses, will be considered according to its merits, taking into account the following circumstances:

- A. Absence of security or criminal preclusion.
- B. The spouses are married, live in Israel and their registered address is in Israel.

Respectfully,

Yochi Genessin [-]

Senior Deputy to the State Attorney

Copy: Yosef Tov, Population Administration Deputy Director.